500 WERE ENTOMBED IN COAL MINE SHAFT

EXPLOSION EARLY TODAY AT ORIENT, AN ILLINOIS MINE

MINE RESCUE CREWS FROM ALL OVER SOUTHERN ILLINOIS AT SCENE

MINING COMPANY WITHHOLDS INFORMATION CONCERNING THE BLAST

(By United Press)
Benton, Ill., Nov. 26.—Five hundred may be entombed in a shaft of one of the Chicago, Wilmington and Franklin coal company's mines at Orient, seven miles east of here, as the result of an explosion early today.

Seven men badly burned in the gas explosion were taken from the mine at 10:30. Mine rescue crews from all over southern Illinois were ordered to the scene.

Eleven hundred men entered the company's mine at Orient early this morning and it is believed as many as 500 are in the shaft.

The coal company, which has its main offices here, refused to give out any information concerning the explosion.

The mine holds the world's record in number of tons of coal hoisted during an eight hour shift and is one of the few in this section which has been working steadily.

CLAIM ALL BUT 14 NOW ACCOUNTED FOR

Chicago, Nov. 26.—All but fourteen of the 922 men who went into the Chicago, Wilmington and Franklin coal mine at Orient here have been accounted for, according to advices received by George B. Herrington, president of the company, he announced at noon today.

BODIES TAKEN FROM SHAFT

Bodies of two men badly burned and crushed were taken from the shaft of the Chicago, Wilmington and Franklin company's mine near here this afternoon.

Eight miners seriously injured were rushed to hospitals.

Attempts to estimate the number of men still in the mine following a gas explosion deep down in the shaft met with little success in the confusion about the mouth of the pit.

While company officials insisted practically all the men had been accounted for, rumors passed quickly about the crowd that at least 200 were still buried in the workings. Those who could talk told of terrible suffering and narrow escapes from death by workers who retained presence of mind and resorted to safety measures.

A first aid station has been established at the company's office here where treatment will be administered before the men are sent to hospitals.

Women and children rushed to the mine entrance when reports of the disaster reached them. Ropes had been put around the mouth of the pit and guards stationed to keep back the crowds in order to facilitate the rescue work.

ALLEGED CHARLATAN BEFORE GRAND JURY

(By United Press)
Hartford, Connecticut, Nov. 26.—Dr. George Sutcliffe, alleged charlatan, faced a Connecticut grand jury today. After he had told his part of the career of the operations of 200 bogus doctors who gained licenses on spurious diplomas—a story which has shocked the nation as details of how patients died in the hands of the men who nothing of the practice of medicine—Sutcliffe was to be arrested on a charge of manslaughter.

He returned to Hartford Sunday after a flight to Canada when it was discovered he had caused an overdose of ether to be administered to a patient, and was grilled for hours by States Attorney Alcorn and the foreman of the jury.

Poison Liquor Holds Grim Carnival in the East

WOMAN LEAVES CASH FOR FUNERAL, ENTERS COUNTY INFIRMARY

Pomeroy, Ohio, Nov. 26.—After investing her savings with an undertaker, to make sure that she would not be buried in the potter's field, Mrs. Caroline Deeds, 75, and blind, became an inmate of the county infirmary. Expecting to take up her residence in the infirmary, Mrs. Deeds, who lived alone for years in a cottage here, accompanied a friend to the undertaker's establishment Saturday and paid for a casket, steel vault, a burial dress and the cost of digging the grave.

USE OF NAVY FOR RUM WAR UP AGAIN

SUMMERS TO REINTRODUCE BILL AGAINST LIQUOR SMUGGLERS—CONFERES WITH COOLIDGE

Washington, Nov. 26.—Following a conference with President Coolidge Representative J. W. Summers (rep. Wash.) announced that he would renew his efforts to make use of the navy against rum runners.

"I shall reintroduce my bill, which I introduced in the last session of congress, placing the navy at the command of the president to support and defend the Constitution of the United States, including the 18th amendment," said Representative Summers.

"When the navy must discriminate between the different sections of the Constitution in favor of one and to the neglect of another section, then indeed are the very foundations of the government undermined."

Attorney General H. M. Daugherty has ruled that the federal government has no authority to make use of the navy to prevent smuggling and the president entertains the view that it is improper to use the armed forces of the United States for policing purposes.

"HANDSOMEST MAN" MURDERED BY RIVALS

(By United Press)
Chicago, Nov. 26.—Freeman Tracy, formerly known as the "handsomest man" at the university of Chicago, was murdered by jealous rivals in a campus romance, police today said they believed.

Tracy, who discontinued his studies at the university to take a position as electrician, was found near the campus early Sunday by students. His body was battered and riddled by bullets. He had apparently been thrown from an automobile after he had been shot to death.

Discarding robbery as a motive for the crime when his money and other valuables were found untouched, police started at once a review of his social activities while a student. Friends said he was popular especially with the girl students. Several persons will be called for questioning soon, authorities said.

FORD IS DAIRY MAN; BUYS $20,000 HERD

Martinsville, Ind., Nov. 26.—Henry Ford got a start in the dairy business here.

The Detroit automobile manufacturer, through his personal representatives, Charles Liebold and Ray Dabinger, purchased 193 head of Ayreshire cattle from the herd which formerly belonged to H. W. Gossard, Chicago corset manufacturer.

The cattle will be shipped to Dearborn, Mich., as soon as quarantine regulations are complied with. It is understood the cattle will be added to the dairy which furnishes milk for Ford's hospital in Detroit.

The purchase price was $20,000. Gossard's herd was sold some time ago to a group of Martinsville men at sheriff's auction.

1 KILLED, 3 HURT WHEN CAR CRASHES INTO PHONE POLE

ACCIDENT AT CURVE IN HIGHWAY NEAR HUDSON, WISCONSIN

POLE BROKEN IN TWO PLACES BY THE FORCE OF THE IMPACT

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Nov. 26.—Pearl Amundsen, 19, St. Paul, was killed and three companions injured early Sunday when an automobile crashed into a telephone pole at a curve in the highway near Hudson, Wis. The pole was broken in two places as a result of the impact.

Miss Amundsen, who formerly lived at Martell, Wis., died at St. Joseph's hospital here a few hours after the accident.

Verna Olson, 19 and Earl Hanson, both of St. Paul, were cut and bruised.

Nels Hatbeck, St. Paul, driver of the car, disappeared from his home here after learning of Miss Amundsen's death. He is sought by police on request of Wisconsin officials.

The town marshal at River Falls reported the machine passed through there at excessive speed. Hudson authorities found the wrecked car half way between Hudson and River Falls.

ST. PAUL FLOODED WITH COUNTERFEIT WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Nov. 26.—St. Paul is being flooded with counterfeit war savings stamps.

Approximately $2,000,000 worth of counterfeit stamps have been put on the market by a nationwide gang of counterfeiters, according to reports at the federal building here today.

Nearly $500,000 of these stamps are in circulation in the Twin Cities and the surrounding trade area, said operatives.

Warnings will be issued immediately from Washington holding any banks or postoffices which cash the counterfeit certificates financially responsible to the federal government.

The stamps which are said to be so cleverly printed that it is very difficult to distinguish them from the genuine are all of five dollar denomination payable January 1, 1924.

Postal inspectors and the secret service officers in St. Paul have joined forces and every operative of the two departments in the northwest has been ordered to search for the counterfeit ring. The national search is believed to center here.

E. B. Linnen in charge of the secret service office here dismissed reports of the counterfeiting with the statement:

"The information is premature." Others in the secret service office admitted that the reports "probably were true enough," but they doubted if publication of the report "at this time would do us any good."

CLAIM SUSPECT WAS IMPLICATED IN ROBBERY

New York, Nov. 26.—Morris M. M. Diamond arrested in Cleveland as a suspect in the Brooklyn bank messenger robbery, arrived here today under guard of detectives and was immediately taken to police headquarters.

Police were confident Diamond, also known as Barlow M. Diamond, was a member of the gang which shot and killed two bank messengers in Brooklyn November 14th and escaped with $43,607.

Questioning of the suspect was started at once.

MAY KILL OFF McADOO'S CHANCES

MURPHY - BRENNAN - TAGGART WING AFTER HIS SCALP

(Copyright 1923 by United Press)
Washington, Nov. 26.—Plans of the Murphy-Brennan-Taggart wing of the democratic party for killing off William G. McAdoo as a presidential possibility are unfolding.

Oscar Underwood of Alabama is their first choice. If Underwood fails, the "Big Three" hope to deadlock the democratic convention and in the end force the nomination of the man they will put forward as a compromise candidate.

Samuel Ralston of Indiana is likely to be this compromise candidate. The strategy mapped out at recent war councils of Murphy, Brennan and Taggart held these points:

McAdoo will probably go into the convention with a greater majority of the delegates, but considerably short of the two-thirds majority required to nominate.

Underwood will have a large block of delegates putting him next to McAdoo on the first ballots. There will be another large block of delegates divided among other candidates, Henry Ford included.

The McAdoo delegation will not stick by him if it is apparent he cannot win.

This situation is made to order for producing a deadlock unless McAdoo can prevent this by showing greater strength than the "Big Three" credit him with.

Underwood is to be given all the delegates the triumvirate can throw to him on a series of ballots maintained to show whether he can beat McAdoo. They will agree to give Underwood the maximum votes if he in turn will agree to do what they want if he cannot win.

(By United Press)
Connellsville, Pa., Nov. 26.—Nine persons were burned to death early today in a fire which destroyed the home of Daniel Rosso, an Italian farmer on Anderson Hill, one mile from Confluence near here.

The dead are Rosso, his wife and seven children who range in age from one month to ten years.

The remains of five of the bodies were recovered from the ruins at noon. The fire apparently broke out while the family slept and all were smothered. The house is in a remote district and none saw the flames. Neighbors called this morning and found the ruins of the home.

He probably will visit Zamboanga and Singapore.

12 STILLS ON ISLE FALL IN NIGHT RAID

SQUATTERS FLEE AS SKIRMISH LINE SWEEPS "PIG'S EYE" RENDEZVOUS

HEADQUARTERS OF BOOTLEG TRADE 100 YEARS AGO INVADIED

St. Paul, Nov. 26.—Pig's Eye island, in the Mississippi river near St. Paul, rendezvous for outlaw bands who sold "fire water" to the Indians, 100 years ago, was invaded by a platoon of armed federal officers, who seized the ferry to the island and crossed the river in one of the most elaborate raids by prohibition forces in Minnesota.

Twelve stills, 25,000 gallons of mash, 750 gallons of moonshine were confiscated.

Fourteen prohibition agents, headed by J. P. Brandt, crossed to Pig's Eye on the ferry, formed a skirmish line and circled through the squatter's colony on the island. Colonists scattered to the four winds, running before the invading federal "army," and fled across to the opposite bank of the river, in row boats.

Only one man was arrested. He was Anthony Piedro, who was jailed, charged with manufacturing liquor.

Stills in 11 Deserted Houses

Eleven of the 40 houses on the island were deserted, and in every deserted house was a moonshine still, in full operation. In one shack there were two stills.

Piedro was found near one of the places. The raid had been planned for several weeks, and was delayed from time to time in the hope of catching operators at work.

Whisky Resort 100 Years Ago
Pig's Eye island was the first bootlegger's rendezvous in Minnesota.

One hundred years ago, when settlers lived on the Fort St. Anthony (now Fort Snelling) reservation, Colonel Josiah Snelling banished a number of fur trappers and traders, who, he suspected, were selling whisky and rum to the Indians.

Among those banished was Pierre (Pig's Eye) Parrant, French Canadian trapper. Parrant fled to the island which was named for him, and formed a settlement known as Pig's Eye, which later was changed to St. Paul.

Parrant lived in a cave and sold liquor unmolested for years.

Backing in St. Paul Suspected
Raids showed that the modern moonshiner, with his copper boiler still, was operating on the same spot where Pig's Eye Parrant violated the law, before Minneapolis or St. Paul existed.

Each of the 12 stills confiscated was of the same make, and apparently had been furnished by a moonshiner's ring, operating in St. Paul, Mr. Brandt said.

Warrants for other arrests were issued, and are to be served.

COLD NORTHWEST WIND DROPS THE TEMPERATURE

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Nov. 26.—A cold northwest wind brought a drop in temperature of more than 39 degrees Sunday night.

Points in North and South Dakota where a warm rain fell Saturday night, reported temperatures as low as 14 degrees above zero early today. In the Twin Cities it was slightly below freezing.

Near the head of the lakes icy winds were driving the thermometer slowly toward zero and snow and colder weather was predicted today for the upper lake region. Fair skies brought temporary relief from the impending cold.

VON SEECKT POWER BEHIND GOVERNMENT

DR. HEINRICH ALBERT AT HELM OF FLOUNDERING SHIP OF STATE

(By United Press)
Berlin, Nov. 26.—General Von Seeckt, unofficial dictator, still will be the power behind the government if Dr. Albert Heinrich Albert, latest to try a hand at the helm of the floundering ship of state, succeeds the former German cabinet.

Von Seeckt's power is growing. It is understood President Ebert before inviting Albert to form a ministry, consulted the general as to whether the former minister of the treasury in the Cuno cabinet would be acceptable.

Dr. Albert, prior to the entry of the United States into the war was German fiscal agent here.

It is understood he has agreed to accept the chancellorship only on the condition he shall have a mandate enabling him to dissolve the Reichstag at any time. If he should resort to this extreme, Dr. Albert would nominally remain head of the government.

The press is lukewarm in its greeting to the proposed chancellor.

3 SEPARATISTS KILLED, 11 WOUNDED IN RIOTS

VITAL BLOW AT WEST INDIA RUM RUNNERS SOUGHT

(By United Press)
New York, Nov. 26.—Federal agents today believed they had struck a vital blow at the West India rum running traffic.

Nine men were to be brought before Assistant Solicitor of the port of New York, Edward H. Barnes, during the day for questioning before being arraigned in New Jersey before a United States commissioner on a charge of transporting liquor to the United States.

The men include William E. McCoy said by federal agents to be the "king" of the West Indian rum runners.

McCoy and his companions were captured early yesterday outside the three mile limit when the coast guard cutter overhauled the British schooner Tomaka and seized 260 cases of whiskey which they said was the remainder of 4,200 cases the ship had brought from Nassau, Bahama Islands.

Seized on Direct Orders

Washington, Nov. 26.—The rum runner Tomaka captured off Seabright, New Jersey, by coast guard cutters, was seized on direct orders from the department of justice here, officials of the coast guard said today. Instructions for proceeding with the case were telephoned to the United States attorney at New York this morning from the department.

POLICE RECORDS OF PHILADELPHIA SHOW CRIME WAVE

8 DEAD, 100 OR MORE IN HOSPITALS, 500 ARRESTS MADE

ALCOHOLIC DEBAUCH BELIEVED DUE TO TEMPERATURE DROP AND HOLIDAYS

(By United Press)
Philadelphia, Nov. 26.—Eight men are dead from drinking poison liquor, 100 or more are in hospitals under treatment for acute alcoholism and another 50 are under arrest for drunkenness in a record breaking weekend liquor drinking orgy, according to police reports today.

The alcoholic debauch is believed due to the sudden drop in the temperature and the approach of the holiday season.

Six men picked up unconscious by the streets by police patrols died before reaching the hospitals. They were pronounced dead from alcoholism. One man found unconscious in a rooming house, died at St. Mary's hospital. All are unidentified.

Peter Graham, arrested for intoxication, was found dead in his cell. When arrested police did not consider his condition serious enough to send the man to a hospital.

Hospitals had the busiest week since the enactment of prohibition. Oxygen was used in many cases to revive the poison liquor victims, others whose condition although no critical required medical attention.

At one central city station house 216 drunks were rounded up. Cell rooms became so crowded that many of the prisoners had to be sent to the city hall.

POISON LIQUOR IN MILWAUKEE, TOO

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 26.—Two deaths believed to have been caused by poison liquor were being investigated by police and the coroner here today. Louis Sibalack, 32, was taken suddenly ill and died after being taken to a hospital and John Reynolds, 64, was found dead in his cell at the house of correction where he had been sentenced on a charge of drunkenness.

According to the coroner who took charge of Sibalack's body, he believed poison liquor was the cause of death.

COMPTROLLER WAS JAILED ON CONTEMPT CHARGE

(By United Press)
Washington, Nov. 26.—President Coolidge has formally directed Attorney General Daugherty to investigate the case of Comptroller Charles L. Craig of New York, sentenced to 60 days in jail for contempt of court and for whom a pardon is sought.

It was announced at the White House today that in response to the president's direction, Daugherty had begun a complete investigation.

Representative Peter Tague, Massachusetts, today joined those appealing to Mr. Coolidge for a pardon for Craig. He has notified C. B. Slemm, the president's secretary, that he wants to discuss the matter with the president.

NECKLACES HANGING IN BACK ARE LATEST

Paris, Nov. 26.—Wearing pendants suspended in back instead of over the bosom is the latest fad here for evening wear with decollete gowns. Pearls and necklaces also are being draped in back instead of in front. It is explained that the jewelry looped in back breaks agreeably the long expanse of cuticle revealed otherwise by the new style backless gown.

Parrant lived in a cave and sold liquor unmolested for years.

Backing in St. Paul Suspected
Raids showed that the modern moonshiner, with his copper boiler still, was operating on the same spot where Pig's Eye Parrant violated the law, before Minneapolis or St. Paul existed.

Each of the 12 stills confiscated was of the same make, and apparently had been furnished by a moonshiners' ring, operating in St. Paul, Mr. Brandt said.

Warrants for other arrests were issued, and are to be served.

COLD NORTHWEST WIND DROPS THE TEMPERATURE

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Nov. 26.—A cold northwest wind brought a drop in temperature of more than 30 degrees Sunday night.

Points in North and South Dakota where a warm rain fell Saturday night, reported temperatures as low as 14 degrees above zero early today.

In the Twin Cities it was slightly below freezing.

Near the head of the lakes icy winds were driving the thermometer slowly toward zero and snow and colder weather was predicted today for the upper lake region. Fair skies brought temporary relief from the impending cold.

LEGALLY DEAD MAN RETURNS FOR LEGACY, FOUND DEAD IN BED

Allentown, Pa., Nov. 26.—Declared legally dead several months ago, after an absence of 14 years, Wilbur Beary, turned up at the home of his brother last Wednesday, and arrangements had been made for his legal "resurrection" tomorrow, so he could share in his parents' estate, which approximated $10,000. Today he was found dead in bed from heart disease.

Beary was about 35 years old. During his absence he said he had spent most of his time in Winnipeg and other northwestern Canadian cities.

VON SEECKT POWER BEHIND GOVERNMENT

DR. HEINRICH ALBERT AT HELM OF FLOUNDERING SHIP OF STATE

(By United Press)
Berlin, Nov. 26.—General Von Seeckt, unofficial dictator, still will be the power behind the government if Dr. Albert Heinrich Albert, latest to try a hand at the helm of the floundering ship of state, succeeds the former German cabinet.

Von Seeckt's power is growing. It is understood President Ebert before inviting Albert to form a ministry, consulted the general as to whether the former minister of the treasury in the Cuno cabinet would be acceptable.

Dr. Albert, prior to the entry of the United States into the war was German fiscal agent there.

It is understood he has agreed to accept the chancellorship only on the condition he shall have a mandate enabling him to dissolve the Reichstag at any time. If he should resort to this extreme, Dr. Albert would nominally remain head of the government.

The press is lukewarm in its greeting to the proposed chancellor.

3 SEPARATISTS KILLED, 11 WOUNDED IN RIOTS

Paris, Nov. 26.—Three separatists were killed and eleven wounded when German citizens loyal to the Berlin government attacked a separatist demonstration in Duren, dispatches said today.

VITAL BLOW AT WEST INDIA RUM RUNNERS SOUGHT

(By United Press)
New York, Nov. 26.—Federal agents today believed they had struck a vital blow at the West India rum running traffic.

Nine men were to be brought before Assistant Solicitor of the port of New York, Edward H. Barnes, during the day for questioning before being arraigned in New Jersey before a United States commissioner on a charge of transporting liquor to the United States.

The men include William S. McCoy said by federal agents to be the "king" of the West Indian rum runners.

McCoy and his companions were captured early yesterday outside the three mile limit when the coast guard cutter overhauled the British schooner Tomaka and seized 200 cases of whiskey which they said was the remainder of 4,200 cases the ship had brought from Nassau, Bahamas Islands.

Seized on Direct Orders

Washington, Nov. 26.—The rum runner Tomaka captured off Seabright, New Jersey, by coast guard cutters, was seized on direct orders from the department of justice here, officials of the coast guard said today. Instructions for proceeding with the case were telephoned to the United States attorney at New York this morning from the department.

POLICE RECORDS OF PHILADELPHIA SHOW CRIME WAVE

8 DEAD, 100 OR MORE IN HOSPITALS, 500 ARRESTS MADE

ALCOHOLIC DEBAUCH BELIEVED DUE TO TEMPERATURE DROP AND HOLIDAYS

(By United Press)
Philadelphia, Nov. 26.—Eight men are dead from drinking poison liquor, 100 or more are in hospitals under treatment for acute alcoholism and another 50 are under arrest for drunkenness in a record breaking week end liquor drinking orgy, according to police reports today.

The alcoholic debauch is believed due to the sudden drop in the temperature and the approach of the holiday season.

Six men picked up unconscious in the streets by police patrols died before reaching the hospitals. They were pronounced dead from alcoholism. One man found unconscious in a rooming house, died at St. Mary's hospital. All are unidentified.

Peter Graham, arrested for intoxication, was found dead in his cell. When arrested police did not consider his condition serious enough to send the man to a hospital.

Hospitals had the busiest week end since the enactment of prohibition. Oxygen was used in many cases to revive the poison liquor victims, others whose condition although no critical required medical attention.

At one central city station house 216 drunks were rounded up. Cell rooms became so crowded that many of the prisoners had to be sent to the city hall.

POISON LIQUOR IN MILWAUKEE, TOO

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 26.—Two deaths believed to have been caused by poison liquor were being investigated by police and the coroner here today. Louis Sibalack, 32, was taken suddenly ill and died after being taken to a hospital and John Reynolds, 64, was found dead in his cell at the house of correction where he had been sentenced on a charge of drunkenness.

According to the coroner who took charge of Sibalack's body, he believes poison liquor was the cause of death.

COMPTROLLER WAS JAILED ON CONTEMPT CHARGE

(By United Press)
Washington, Nov. 26.—President Coolidge has formally directed Attorney General Daugherty to investigate the case of Comptroller Charles L. Craig of New York, sentenced to 60 days in jail for contempt of court and for whom a pardon is sought.

It was announced at the White House today that in response to the president's direction, Daugherty had begun a complete investigation.

Representative Peter Tague, Massachusetts, today joined those appealing to Mr. Coolidge for a pardon for Craig. He has notified C. B. Slemph, the president's secretary, that he wants to discuss the matter with the president.

NECKLACES HANGING IN BACK ARE LATEST

Paris, Nov. 26.—Wearing pendants suspended in back instead of over the bosom is the latest fad here for evening wear with décolleté gowns. Pearls and necklaces also are being draped in back instead of in front. It is explained that the jewelry looped in back breaks agreeably the long expanse of cuticle revealed otherwise by the new style backless gown.

FARMER MEETINGS ON THANKSGIVING

Five Clubs Will Partake of Turkey Dinners With All the Trimmings

PROGRAMS ARE INTERESTING

Matters Recommended at Annual Gathering of Farm Bureau Will be Discussed

Five farmers clubs in Crow Wing county are planning big meetings for Thanksgiving day, with special turkey dinners in each instance, says County Agent E. G. Roth.

The Nokay Lake farmers club meets in the town hall, in a noon meeting. The Center Farm Bureau Unit meets at the A. C. Taylor home. The Nisswa Community club meets at Nisswa, the Twin Lakes Farmers club at Hjalmer Johnson's home, and the Rabbit Lake Farm Bureau Unit at the Fred Johnson home.

These meetings, coming immediately after the annual farm bureau meeting in Brainerd on Tuesday, will be of special interest, since many matters recommended at the annual meeting will be taken up by the various clubs, and winter programs outlined.

KERMIT BRUSVEN DIED

Was Son of C. B. Brusven; Succumbed to Leakage of the Heart

Kermit Brusven, aged 10 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Brusven, 307 1/2 South 6th street, passed away at a local hospital at noon Sunday after an illness of about four weeks, caused by leakage of the heart.

Kermit was born December 15, 1913. Beside his parents he is survived by three sisters, Stella, Edna and Pearl, and two brothers, Victor and Robert.

The funeral will be held at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon from the Bethlehem Lutheran church, Rev. O. S. Wintner officiating, and interment will be made in Evergreen cemetery. The remains will lie in state at the church from 1:30 until the hour of the funeral.

The bereaved relatives have the sympathy of the entire community.

I. Q. TESTS

Miss Charlotte Lowe to Address Business and Professional Women

On Tuesday evening the regular, though postponed, meeting of the Business & Professional Women's club will be held at 7:30 o'clock sharp at the club rooms in the Lyceum building. A number of important things will be discussed and in addition, Miss Lowe, mental examiner for the state, will give a most interesting talk on the giving of mental tests. Miss Lowe has a charming personality and is an entertaining speaker. Her subject is one much discussed at the moment, and all members will without doubt be glad of this opportunity to hear the practical results obtained by the application of these tests on wards of the state.

Miss Mary Tornstrom will conduct the musical memory contest, which was so much enjoyed at the October meeting. Refreshments will be served by the house committee, for which a charge of ten cents per member will be asked.

A Christmas bazaar is to be given by the club Dec. 15th and additional plans will be discussed at this meeting. Miss Alta Franklin is chairman of this committee, and will welcome suggestions from the members.

The club has many reasons to be thankful this Thanksgiving season, but especially for one thing: that the disastrous fire of last year, which caused them to give up spacious club rooms and somewhat curtailed social activities, has been the means of drawing the members closer together.

RUNAWAY GIRLS AND WANDERING BOYS

VIRGINIA M. MURRAY, executive secretary of the Travels Aid society of New York, calls the attention of American women to the fact that each year 60,000 girls leave their homes to seek the imagined values of the large centers of population. This lady believes that this exodus from the small towns and farm homes need not take place and that it is possible for the middle aged women of the community to prevent it.

It is highly probable that many of those who leave home in this way are made of the stuff that is really worthwhile. The spirit of adventure that takes the girl out into the larger world would be a valuable asset to the community she forsakes. Sometimes people are inclined to the view that the girl, who leaves home in this way, is wicked when she leaves, because, after she has reached the large city, she goes astray. This is not generally true. Girls are attracted by the large centers with their many advantages and pleasures, but when they get there they meet strange temptations and are thrown into new situations which their inexperience is unable to meet. They often find that they are unable to secure the wherewithal to live and this leads to the fatal step. They often go out from home in innocence but circumstances result in their wrong-doing.

One thing cannot be done by those back home; they cannot rid the larger centers of their attractions. The white lights will continue to shine, the pleasures will continue to appeal and the hope of arriving at a place of luxury unknown to the life back home will always attract. What they can do is to make the home community more attractive to the young people who are impressed by its drabness and lack of light and warmth. It is possible that the "father" of the parable never gave a dinner and a dance for his younger son until after he returned from his wandering and prodigal life, but, be that as it may, middle aged people very often fail to organize social interests for the youth of the community and yet they blame the youth when it makes mistakes in the home town or pulls up the stakes and gets out. Youth has not many stakes to pull and a cheap traveling bag and an ounce of spirit is all that is needed to bring about this result.

What is true of the girl is just as much true of the boy. Doubtless more boys than girls leave their homes for the larger centers but the boy has an advantage and is better able to secure work that will sustain him. Recently R. D. Stitzel gave a very unusual talk along this line, pointing out what might be accomplished in the small towns if they kept their boys at home. He cited Rochester as an example and said that any town in the United States might have become the center of the automobile industry if Henry Ford had wandered out of Detroit.

Unless the small town is able to make home life attractive for the boys and girls they will not stay and those who have the most spirit will be the ones to leave home. Nor are their interests to be manufactured for them by their elders. The people who have the ability to lead must see to it that life is appealed to by the things which interest and must avoid trying to make the interests of youth fit into their ideas of what those interests should be. Unless this is done the exodus of young people from the small towns will continue and will probably grow larger.

PROPHETS OF PROSPERITY

CHARLES M. SCHWAB predicts that if Secretary Mellon's proposed tax reduction scheme is accepted by congress the United States will enter upon the greatest era of prosperity it has ever known. It is interesting to note that this prosperity is conditioned upon the reduction of the taxes, according to the proposal of the secretary of the treasury. The implication is that unless the advice of Secretary Mellon is followed the prosperity of the United States will be jeopardized.

While Mr. Schwab does not go into a discussion of the reasons for the coming prosperity which is to follow tax reduction, other leaders of thought in the large fields of economic and industrial life in America have pointed out that it will be brought about through those whose money is at present invested in tax exempt securities putting it into more productive channels. These men, whose money is so invested that they are at present freed from taxation on their investments, are the men who are in the main opposed to the soldiers' bonus. They claim that to pay a bonus would cheapen the men who received it and reflect on their patriotic motives.

It is not easy to see where the fervent patriotism of such men is found. Men who invest their money in tax exempt securities for the purpose of avoiding taxation, and whose investments, if they were put into more productive channels, would make for a larger prosperity, but who refuse to so use their resources until they have compelled congress to adjust taxes according to their desire, are not overly patriotic.

The position already taken has nothing to do with the wisdom of Mr. Mellon's proposals. It is possible that the ex-service men would gain more in the end through finding steady employment than they would get out of a bonus, if the payment of that bonus was responsible for making men of the type discussed keep their investments where they are tax exempt and where they do not stimulate larger production. The release of money now paid in taxes might be diverted into channels where it would stimulate the economic and industrial life of the nation, but those who seek to avoid the payment of taxes and by clever manipulation do avoid payment are not the persons to talk patriotism to the ex-service men of the United States. Too many of them provided faulty supplies which endangered the lives of the men who were fighting their battles on foreign soil.

Propaganda from this source is not serving America well, for it is stirring up resentment in the minds of ex-service men which may find expression in repudiating the candidate of the party which makes its appeal to the electorate on a tax reduction program, not because it is unwise but because its backers have made a very foolish move in coupling it with the bonus question and by talking patriotism to the men who served with the forces of the United States while its advocates shirk the payment of taxes by buying up tax exempt securities.

"Merry-Go-Round" at Lyceum

More and more every day the screen is turning to stories which require careful, conscientious filming, for the public delights in stories which contain "meat" in the way of detail and atmosphere.

"Merry-Go-Round," Universal's most elaborate production to date, now showing at the Lyceum Theatre is the sort of story which tells much more than its own plot. It tells the facts and still more important, the psychology behind the facts of pre-war life in Austria.

It is interesting to note that this prosperity is conditioned upon the reduction of the taxes, according to the proposal of the secretary of the treasury. The implication is that unless the advice of Secretary Mellon is followed the prosperity of the United States will be jeopardized.

While Mr. Schwab does not go into a discussion of the reasons for the coming prosperity which is to follow tax reduction, other leaders of thought in the large fields of economic and industrial life in America have pointed out that it will be brought about through those whose money is at present invested in tax exempt securities putting it into more productive channels. These men, whose money is so invested that they are at present freed from taxation on their investments, are the men who are in the main opposed to the soldiers' bonus. They claim that to pay a bonus would cheapen the men who received it and reflect on their patriotic motives.

It is not easy to see where the fervent patriotism of such men is found. Men who invest their money in tax exempt securities for the purpose of avoiding taxation, and whose investments, if they were put into more productive channels, would make for a larger prosperity, but who refuse to so use their resources until they have compelled congress to adjust taxes according to their desire, are not overly patriotic.

The position already taken has nothing to do with the wisdom of Mr. Mellon's proposals. It is possible that the ex-service men would gain more in the end through finding steady employment than they would get out of a bonus, if the payment of that bonus was responsible for making men of the type discussed keep their investments where they are tax exempt and where they do not stimulate larger production. The release of money now paid in taxes might be diverted into channels where it would stimulate the economic and industrial life of the nation, but those who seek to avoid the payment of taxes and by clever manipulation do avoid payment are not the persons to talk patriotism to the ex-service men of the United States. Too many of them provided faulty supplies which endangered the lives of the men who were fighting their battles on foreign soil.

Propaganda from this source is not serving America well, for it is stirring up resentment in the minds of ex-service men which may find expression in repudiating the candidate of the party which makes its appeal to the electorate on a tax reduction program, not because it is unwise but because its backers have made a very foolish move in coupling it with the bonus question and by talking patriotism to the men who served with the forces of the United States while its advocates shirk the payment of taxes by buying up tax exempt securities.

"Merry-Go-Round" at Lyceum

More and more every day the screen is turning to stories which require careful, conscientious filming, for the public delights in stories which contain "meat" in the way of detail and atmosphere. "Merry-Go-Round," Universal's most elaborate production to date, now showing at the Lyceum Theatre is the sort of story which tells much more than its own plot. It tells the facts and still more important, the psychology behind the facts of pre-war life in Austria.

Brainerd Police Conducted Four Raids Saturday Night and Sunday

CULPRITS IN MUNICIPAL COURT

Disposition of the Cases as Made After Hearings Before Judge J. H. Warner

Liquor valued at $480 was seized by the Brainerd police in four raids conducted Saturday night and Sunday.

The first raid was made about midnight Saturday night at a room rented by George Sidler at 206 Kingwood street. Here 35 gallons of liquor were found and 7 or 8 jugs. Sidler and O. Saam occupy quarters at flat 4 of the Beare block, and the police raided these rooms also, finding one pint of liquor.

Three pint bottles of liquor were found at the O. H. Gram property on Kindred street in Northeast Brainerd, where it is alleged Mr. Gram had "planted" it.

On Sunday night the police raided the home of Ben Johnson, 309 North Tenth street and surprised a number who had gathered there. Five quarts of liquor were taken in addition to about half a gallon when it is said Mrs. Johnson poured out when she saw the police.

In municipal court on Monday morning Johnson plead guilty to maintaining a nuisance and was fined $100. The court ordered that the liquor seized be held as evidence. David Barry, Arvid Erickson, B. O. Huff and S. Eslefson are charged with being at the Johnson place at the time of the raid. In court Hoff and Eslefson were arraigned, plead guilty to the charge and were fined $15 each.

George Sidler was arraigned charged with maintaining a nuisance both at 206 Kingwood street and in his flat in the Beare block. He plead guilty to both charges and was fined $100 in each case. O. Saam plead not guilty to the same charge and his case will be heard on November 27th.

O. H. Gram plead guilty to possessing liquor and was fined $100, and the liquor ordered destroyed.

F. McCaffery plead guilty to a charge of speeding and was fined $10.

A. A. Decent and Carl C. Wilson plead guilty to a charge of violating the game laws, and were each fined $10. Deputy Game Warden A. P. Cardie making the complaint.

HUNTER IN A SAD ACCIDENT

Frederick McKinley Shoots Himself in Foot at Dusk, Hunting on Pelican Lake

STUMBLED OVER A STUMP

Discharged the Shotgun He Was Carrying, Badly Mangling His Foot

Frederick McKinley, well known Brainerd boy and son of Mr. and Mrs. Ashley McKinley, 2 Bluff Ave., north, was accidentally shot in the foot while duck hunting at Pelican lake Sunday afternoon.

McKinley, in company with Dean Lowe, Paul Smith and Ray Engbretson, had been shooting on Pelican lake, and decided to come in about five o'clock. In walking up to the club house on the east side of the lake, McKinley, who was behind his companions, stumbled over a stump in the semi-darkness, discharging the shotgun he was carrying.

The full charge entered his left foot, badly lacerating that member in addition to powder burns. He was hurried to the city and taken immediately to Northwestern hospital, where the wound was dressed. A report from the hospital at noon today stated that he was resting easily. The extent of the damage to the injured foot could not be stated, the doctors awaiting developments that may arise, which might make amputation necessary.

McKinley is 22 years old, and had been employed at the local N. P. shops, although he had not been working for some time. It is said. He was to have returned to his job Monday morning.

SHOCKER CASE MAY GO TO LANDIS

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Nov. 26.—No winter meeting of the major league club owners would be productive of the space in the newspapers the moguls cherish as their own without some reports of a big fight about something.

Reports this year have to do with an alleged fight the magnates are to carry against Commissioner Landis, who is said to have offended his employers by injecting too much Landis in the limelight.

Ban Johnson, according to reports that seem rather artificial, is to bring up the old question of Ban's: "Who's bigger than I am?"

At the present time, Landis is bigger than Ban in the conduct of baseball affairs, and Landis will be bigger than Ban after any argument that Ban may start.

Johnson is said to be ready to fight if Landis should attempt to interfere in the squabble between Urban Shocker and the owners of the St. Louis Browns.

Claiming that he had been treated unfairly by the Brown owners, Shocker appealed to Landis to have himself declared a free agent and if Landis figures that he should occupy the bench and hear the argument, it is not likely that Johnson's threat will scare him away.

Shocker's case brings up a much broader issue than the one on the surface, one that is of interest to all ball players and one that Landis may feel concerns more than the individual case of Shocker vs. The Browns.

Shocker wanted to have his wife accompany him on the last eastern trip of the Browns last season and he agreed to bear the expense of her transportation and maintenance, but the club refused to allow her to accompany the pitcher.

Shocker refused to go, and was suspended and fined $500. He maintains that the club has no right to govern his private affairs and he wants the commissioner to make a ruling to cover the case.

Several ball clubs do not allow the wives of their players to accompany their husbands on the road.

MICHIGAN WINS OVER MINNESOTA BY SCORE 10 TO 0

Aan Arbor, Mich., Nov. 26.—Minnesota's hopes of finishing the season with an undefeated record were shattered here Saturday when Michigan upset the Gophers, winning 10 to 0. The Wolverines win gave Hurry Up Yost's men a tie with Illinois for the top rung of the Western conference but the Maize and Blue, favored by breaks all season, were blessed again by Lady Luck.

Graham Out Early
Just nine plays after the kickoff Malcolm Graham, returning a punt 22 yards, was tackled so fiercely out of bounds that he was forced to retire. The absence of the flashy Gopher quarterback was keenly felt. The Gopher eleven was completely demoralized, her offense, which riddled Iowa 20 to 7, was ruined and whatever chance she had of lowering the Maize and Blue went glimmering.

There is no doubt in the minds of the Gophers and their followers that if Graham had been able to play the entire game that the Little Brown Jug would have been on its way back to Minnesota's trophy case.

It was indeed a sad ending for such a courageous squad as the Gophers. They were doped to win and but for Graham's unfortunate injury, would have undoubtedly turned the trick.

Gophers Gain More
Even with Graham out Minnesota gained 136 yards by scrimmage to Michigan's 66. They made eight first downs by scrimmage to Michigan's four. Minnesota was unable to complete a forward pass while Michigan tried nine making four of them.

Michigan's touchdown came in the second period on a beautiful forward pass, Vick to Kipke, which made 11 yards and first down on Minnesota's 46 yard line. After a line buck netted a yard, Vick shot another aerial toss to Steger, who ripped off 23 yards. Then Michigan, 30 yards away from the goal, sent three men out to receive a pass. Rockwell traveling at a fast gait, ran past the Minnesota's right secondary defense. He grabbed the oval and ran 15 yards for the counter. Rockwell kicked goal.

Along in the early part of the third period Michigan scored again, this time by the consistent toe of Harry Kipke. He booted a dropkick from his 35 yard line, which stayed back inches inside of the uprights.

All joined heartily in the opening exercises last night. Many beautiful pictures were thrown on the screen, depicting incidents in the life of Christ on the earth. The illustrated song, "Throw Out the Life Line," was well rendered.

Evangelist M. E. Anderson spoke very feelingly on the topic, "The Mutual Surrender: God and Ourselves." Mr. Anderson said "The character of Jesus never changes." "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and today, and forever." Heb. 13:8. He also stated "that if we expected to live with Christ in the Eternal Kingdom, we must learn to live with Him on earth." "It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with Him, we shall also live with Him: If we suffer, we shall also reign with Him: If we deny Him, He also will deny us: If we believe not, yet He abideth faithful: He cannot deny himself." 2 Tim. 2:11—Mr. Anderson gave the invitation, and many hands came up signifying that they were willing to make the surrender. The Greatest Force

The greatest force in the world is the will to serve.

When it is born of enthusiasm it is dynamic in its intensity.

When it emanates from a sense of duty it endures.

It is the will to serve that puts imagination into business.

It is the will to serve, persisted in over a long period of years, that has made the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) one of America's outstanding successes.

It is this same will to serve that has encouraged this Company to foster industrial husbandry not alone in its own business but elsewhere.

If the management of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) had been content to take from crude petroleum, gasoline, kerosene and lubricating oils only, this Company would have been a large manufacturing concern, but it never could have achieved its present position as an institution in the industrial world.

Without disturbing those three essential major products, this Company set about utilizing waste. It retrieved products of great benefit to the medical profession—products that lighten the burden of the housewife—products that make night travel safe—products that make good roads—and products that serve mankind in a score of ways.

All these products were developed by the will to serve.

The personnel of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is obsessed with the will to serve and led by men with imagination—imagination reduced to terms of practical business.

It is the will to serve that inspired the Manufacturing Department of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to develop methods for increasing the yield of gasoline from a given quantity of crude petroleum.

It is the will to serve that caused the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to lease to competitive concerns the right to use such important manufacturing processes.

It is the will to serve that caused the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to create and maintain facilities so comprehensive as to serve a five-gallon customer as carefully, as accurately, and as promptly as it serves a thousand-gallon buyer.

It is the will to serve, expressed in terms of action, that has earned for the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) the confidence, respect and esteem of the thirty million people of the Middle West.

FIERY, ITCHY ECZEMA HEALED RIGHT UP BY APPLYING SULPHUR

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mentho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment and disfigurement. Sufferers from skin trouble should get a little jar of Rowles' Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream. —Advt.

Coughing is unnecessary and can be controlled

COUGHING is frequently due to an irritation of the throat and lung tissue which persistent hacking only makes worse. You can stop coughs of this character almost at once with Dr. King's New Discovery. It relieves the irritating tickle and quiets the impulse to cough, thus giving the cough a chance to clear up. You'll like its agreeable taste. All druggists.

SHOCKER CASE MAY GO TO LANDIS

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Nov. 26.—No winter meeting of the major league club owners would be productive of the space in the newspapers the moguls cherish as their own without some reports of a big fight about something.

Reports this year have to do with an alleged fight the magnates are to carry against Commissioner Landis, who is said to have offended his employers by injecting too much Landis in the limelight.

Ban Johnson, according to reports that seem rather artificial, is to bring up the old question of Ban's: "Who's bigger than I am?"

At the present time, Landis is bigger than Ban in the conduct of baseball affairs, and Landis will be bigger than Ban after any argument that Ban may start.

Johnson is said to be ready to fight if Landis should attempt to interfere in the squabble between Urban Shocker and the owners of the St. Louis Browns.

Claiming that he had been treated unfairly by the Brown owners, Shocker appealed to Landis to have himself declared a free agent and if Landis figures that he should occupy the bench and hear the argument, it is not likely that Johnson's threat will scare him away.

Shocker's case brings up a much broader issue than the one on the surface, one that is of interest to all ball players and one that Landis may feel concerns more than the individual case of Shocker vs. The Browns.

Shocker wanted to have his wife accompany him on the last eastern trip of the Browns last season and he agreed to bear the expense of her transportation and maintenance, but the club refused to allow her to accompany the pitcher.

Shocker refused to go, and was suspended and fined $500. He maintains that the club has no right to govern his private affairs and he wants the commissioner to make a ruling to cover the case.

Several ball clubs do not allow the wives of their players to accompany their husbands on the road.

MICHIGAN WINS OVER MINNESOTA BY SCORE 10 TO 0

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 26.—Minnesota's hopes of finishing the season with an undefeated record were shattered here Saturday when Michigan upset the dope, winning 10 to 0. The Wolverines win gave Hurry Up Yost's men a tie with Illinois for the top rung of the Western conference but the Maize and Blue, favored by breaks all season, were blessed again by Lady Luck.

Graham Out Early

Just nine plays after the kickoff Malcolm Graham, returning a punt 22 yards, was tackled so fiercely out of bounds that he was forced to retire. The absence of the flashy Gopher quarterback was keenly felt. The Gopher eleven was completely demoralized, her offense, which rattled Iowa 20 to 7, was ruined and whatever chance she had of lowering the Maize and Blue went glimmering.

There is no doubt in the minds of the Gophers and their followers that if Graham had been able to play the entire game that the Little Brown Jug would have been on its way back to Minnesota's trophy case.

It was indeed a sad ending for such a courageous squad as the Gophers. They were doped to win and but for Graham's unfortunate injury, would have undoubtedly turned the trick.

Gophers Gain More

Even with Graham out Minnesota gained 136 yards by scrimmage to Michigan's 66. They made eight first downs by scrimmage to Michigan's four. Minnesota was unable to complete a forward pass while Michigan tried nine making four of them.

Michigan's touchdown came in the second period on a beautiful forward pass, Vick to Kipke, which made 11 yards and first down on Minnesota's 46 yard line. After a line buck netted a yard, Vick shot another aerial toss to Steger, who ripped off 23 yards. Then Michigan, 30 yards away from the goal, sent three men out to receive a pass. Rockwell traveling at a fast gait, ran past the Minnesota's right secondary defense. He grabbed the oval and ran 15 yards for the counter. Rockwell kicked goal.

Along in the early part of the third period Michigan scored again, this time by the consistent toe of Harry Kipke. He booted a dropkick from his 35 yard line, which stayed back inches inside of the uprights.

FIERY, ITCHY ECZEMA HEALED RIGHT UP BY APPLYING SULPHUR

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Menthosulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment and disfigurement. Sufferers from skin trouble should get a little jar of Rowles' Menthosulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream. —Advt.

Coughing is unnecessary and can be controlled

COUGHING is frequently due to an irritation of the throat and lung tissue which persistent hacking only makes worse. You can stop coughs of this character almost at once with Dr. King's New Discovery. It relieves the irritating tickle and quiets the impulse to cough, thus giving the inflammation that is causing the cough a chance to clear up. You'll like its agreeable taste. All druggists.
